Brief Abstract of Letter.

Forwards copies of letters Nos. 118 and 134 of the 9th and 26th November 1906 respectively from the Registrar of Co-operative Societies proposing the appointment of Hon. Dr. S. Narain Rao, retired Dy. Coun., as Honorary Organizer of the Co-operative Societies and recommends that for the present Hon. Dr. S. Narain Rao may be appointed, as proposed, for the Districts of Bangalore and Tumkur.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

Hon. Rama Rao says that in Bombay and in some other provinces of British India, a few private gentlemen have been appointed by Govt as Honorary Organizers of Co-operative Societies and for this work they are paid no remuneration, but are allowed to get their travelling expenses, that Hon. Dr. S. Narain Rao has expressed his willingness to undertake to popularise the movement, and if sanction is accorded to his being recognised as an Honorary organizer of Co-operative Societies and to draw batta and travelling allowances at the rates at which he was drawing as a Dy. Commr. he would meet Mr. Narain Rao's travelling charges from his budget and that no Extra allotment for the purpose would be required for the present.

The Suggestion Seems like a good one. A large no of Honorary organizers may not be required in a Small province like mysore - There Seems, however, like no objection to the appointment of a few, especially if men of Character like Mr. Mr. Narayana Rao are willing to undertake the work. Before sanctioning the appointment, it Seems desirable to know what is exactly the arrangement in the British Provinces in which this agency is employed for popularizing the Co-operative movement - The Rev Commr may be called to Send for the information & Govt rules relating to these honorary

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that, in Bombay and some other provinces of British India, a few private gentlemen have been appointed by Government as Honorary Organizers of Co-operative Societies and for this work they are paid no remuneration, but are allowed to get their travelling expenses. In Bombay for instance, three retired Deputy Collectors work in the Districts of Khandesh and Guzarat and in the Southern Division respectively Mr. F. McNeill, the Registrar of Co-operative Credit

Credit Societies in Bombay has the following remarks regarding the useful work done by these gentlemen, in his last Annual Report :-

"During the year three gentlemen offered their services as Honorary Organizers, namely, Mr. K. N. Bhangaonkar, whose appointment was sanctioned by Government on 26th September 1905, R. B. Motilal Chunilal appointed on 6th February 1906, and Mr. A. B. Desai appointed on the 20th February 1906. These gentlemen, retired Deputy Collectors, receive no salary but draw travelling allowance sufficient to cover their actual expenses on tour. The first named works in the Khandesh District, the second in Gujerat, and the third in the Southern Division. They unselfishly devote their energy, intelligence, and experience to assisting their neighbours mainly mainly but not solely of the poorer and less educated classes, to form and work Societies and desire no reward but the conviction that their labours will result in substantial benefits to the persons aided. They have each done good work and each has successfully broken new ground. Many more such workers would find ample scope for rendering disinterested public services of the same kind. To the advantages derived from their Official training and experience is added the popular respect which is extended to volunteer workers who obviously devote their mind and energies energies to promoting any benevolent scheme. Their advice comes not as an official proposal but as a friendly suggestion to listeners usually prepossessed in favour of the adviser. While the mass of the listeners are attracted by the Organizer's disinterestedness, the more intelligent and educated are further impressed by the fact that he can guide them practically through technical difficulties".

2. In the Mysore State, I have not found as yet many disinterested workers coming forward to popularize the benevolent scheme of agri-cultural and industrial Co-operation which it is the object of the Co-operative Societies Regulation to introduce introduce. Mr M. S. Narain Rao, however, recently Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga, and who is now on the retired list, has expressed his willingness to undertake to popularize the movement, and I consider that the movement will receive considerable Stimulus by associating with it a gentleman of his position and standing. I beg, therefore, that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for his being recognized as an Honorary Organizer of Co-operative Societies, and for his being permitted to draw batta and travelling allowances at the rates at which he was drawing as a Deputy Commissioner when he was in active service. If the Government are pleased to approve of my suggestion, I shall meet the travelling charges of Mr. Narain Rao from my budget, and I shall at present require no extra allotment for the purpose.

3. In conclusion, I may add that the question of appointing Honorary Organizers formed one of the subjects of discussion at the Conference lately held at Simla, and it was agreed that an attempt in that direction was highly desirable.
